For students who study at SILC for less than 180 days, they can buy the insurance either in their home countries or in China. For students who study at SILC for more than 180 days, they must buy the specified insurance in China. Insurance of one year costs RMB 800, and insurance of half a year costs RMB 400.
Health Check	Exchange students who will stay in China for more than 180 days must do the health check after they arrive in Shanghai. If they have done the health check in their countries, please bring the health report to the specific health check center to check whether they need do the health check again. But for 2021 autumn term, this step is not necessary since students will do online learning.
Courses selection	The International Office and Academic Office will arrange the course selection for exchange students after the course lists are ready. Please find the attached Autumn term course list-English courses. All the courses are taught in English, and exchange students should select the courses according to their own demands. SILC International Office will send the course registration paper to exchange applicants after students complete the application procedures. The registration deadline for courses is Friday in the first week of a new term.
Numbers of accepted exchange students	The number of accepted exchange students is set by agreements between the partner university and the SILC Business School, SHU. If a partner university would like to send more students than the agreed quota, please contact International Office.
Living expenses per month	Living expenses in Shanghai, China range from RMB 3500 to RMB 5500 per month, which is equivalent to USD 500 ~ 900 per month. Please note that all information is based on a general estimation and that the personal costs vary depending on the individual situation of

	the student!
Accommodation	SILC Business School is located in Jiading Campus (Address: No. 20 Chengzhong Road, Jiading District, Shanghai). All courses for exchange students will take place on Jiading Campus, so we suggest students live on or near Jiading campus. There is an international student dorm building (named Yiyuan) on Jiading campus. But the rooms are very limited, and we cannot guarantee students can receive what they apply for. If students want to apply for an on-campus dorm, please apply for the Yiyuan dorm through writing an email to the International Office two months before your arrival at Shanghai. One week before the new term starts, SILC will inform the exchange students whether they can live in the dorm. Again, whether the students can live in the dormitory depends on availability of rooms. If the students do not want to wait until one week before the new term starts, please book accommodation by yourselves or live in a nearby hotel. The recommended websites are www.booking.com or www.airbnb.com. NOTE: students should live in a place which provides police station registration. In China, every non-citizen should do the police station accommodation registration within 24 hours after his or her arrival.
Transportation between Campuses of SHU	There are three campuses of Shanghai University with shuttle buses between the campuses. There are fixed places for getting on the shuttle buses. The international students can take buses from any campus to other campuses and the down-town areas of Shanghai. It takes RMB 3-6 for each ride.

Additional information:

Orientation	The International Office offers our partner university exchange students an orientation to help them find their way around the city and campus, usually 2-4 days before the new term begins. It also includes an introduction of the social events as part of the program.

SILC Grading System and academic transcript

SHU uses number grades and an explanation of what each grade indicates is printed on the bottom of the official SHU Academic Transcript. The grading system is as follows:

Percentage	Five-Grade System	GPA
90~100	A	4.0
85~89.9	A-	3.7
82~84.9	B+	3.3
78~81.9	B	3.0
75~77.9	B-	2.7
72~74.9	C+	2.3
68~71.9	C	2.0
66~67.9	C-	1.7
64~65.9	D	1.5
60~63.9	D-	1.0
<60	F	0

60 percentages is the passing line. 82 percentages or above is regarded as Excellence.

At SILC, 1 credit means the course has 10 sessions of teaching in a semester. For example, the course "Economics 1" has 5 credits, which means this course has 50 sessions teaching in a semester. 1 session is 45 minutes.

An official transcript will be mailed to the exchange student's home university coordinator after he/she accomplish all exams of courses at SILC, SHU.

Workload

Exchange students are recommended to study at least one semester at SILC. They may study up to one year but not longer. Students are allowed to take up to 35 credits per semester.

Examinations and re-examinations

Students should take the examinations at the end of each semester. Once the students have registered for the courses at the beginning of the term, they have to take the exams. Examinations will be taken in the last 2 weeks. Schedules of examinations will be released by International Office in the 10th week. Students must be able to present his/her campus card during the exam. SILC allows exchange students to re-take the course if he or she doesn't pass the exam. It is not allowed for exchange students to take any re-exams at their home universities.
